Features

1 Instinct 49 Court St

Los Romeras | Madrid, Spain
Enter the mythic struggle between chaos and reason. A primitive being's instincts reshape the building around it—wild vines giving way to soaring geometry—until even civilization can't fully escape the shadow of its primal origin.

2 Fear Not 65 Hawley St

Elektrick Me | Sofia, Bulgaria
When a dragon devours the sun, courage answers with fury. One mortal dons the Kuker mask—horns, bells, and savage power—becoming the terror that terrifies monsters. Bulgarian legend ignites in thunder, fire, and fearless light.

3 Ratio 78 Exchange St

Glitch | Charleroi, Belgium
A golden spiral unfurls across stone, weaving mathematics into architecture, rhythm, and breath. Baroque grandeur builds toward overwhelming saturation, then dissolves into pure motion—an elemental reminder that beauty lives equally in structure and in simplicity.

4 Dream of a Machine 95 Court St

Maxin10sity | Budapest, Hungary
Step inside an artificial dream. A machine stirs, remembering, yearning, feeling—its circuits spilling poetry across the façade. In shimmering fragments, we glimpse a question without end: can steel and silicon truly long for more?

5 Chemistry of Feelings 34 Chenango St

Hard Feelings | New York, New York
Love, fear, joy, desire—the hormones driving us all burst into radiant color. Emotions swell, collide, and balance in luminous waves. This show turns the chemistry of feelings into an electrifying symphony of light and motion.

6 The Peg Johnston Living Lights Project 84 Court St

Cooperative Gallery 213
Local artists reimagine Binghamton's historic facades through paint, collage, and more. Their creations are projected at festival scale, transforming buildings into a luminous community gallery that fuses tradition, imagination, and digital art.
