Features

- 1 lightStruct Collection
10 Henry St.
 Brett Phares (Curator)
 New York City
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 Selected by nationally acclaimed projection mapping curator Brett Phares, lightStruct shares expressions from a diverse array of artists each with a unique way of leveraging the medium. How does an overlay of light help us re-examine the architectural spaces we take for granted and highlight how the artist experiences those spaces differently? How do they coax meaning from cold stone and make us reconnect and truly experience the everyday?
- 2 Nevermore
49 Court St.
 SILA SVETA | MOSCOW
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 SILA SVETA makes their LUMA debut with a mapping inspired by the American master of the macabre, Edgar Allan Poe. Experience The Raven as you've never seen it before, the classic tale coming to life 3 stories tall. Of course, this Raven has an even bigger twist. Half the production was built by flesh and blood human beings, while the rest was generated entirely by AI. It's a visual conversation between man and machine unlike anything you've ever seen in large-scale projection mapping.
- 3 Cheerful Nightmares
95 Court St.
 MAXINIOSITY | BUDAPEST
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 A trip to your favorite amusement park is sure to thrill—but what happens when the park takes the thrills a bit too far—and the amusements take on a life of their own? Maxiniosity transforms 95 Court in a tribute to a classic county carnival with a frightful twist—one that has you asking if the rides are only there to quicken your pulse, or for some more devious design.
- 4 Firefly
78 Collier St.
 LIGHTHARVEST | BROOKLYN
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 An undeniable magic lies in the very idea of a firefly—illumination from within and the power of something barely seen. Light Harvest plays with these ideas in a journey of fearless discovery and insatiable curiosity. What can one's inner light reveal about our environment, both natural and manmade? What can we learn about ourselves? How can one tiny spark inspire tens of thousands to take more delight in the world around them? Firefly makes us wonder.
- 5 Cosmogonia
78 Exchange St.
 MINDSCAPE | BUCHAREST
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 Our universe has been on a billion-year journey without even a single witness to record its countless transformations—that is, until we appeared. Now we stare into infinite, determined to unlock its mysteries. But can we even conceive that which it's trying to teach. Cosmogonia is driven by the belief that an unimaginable journey awaits us—a mission seeded by our certainty that somewhere, someday, something just beyond our comprehension is waiting to transform our understanding of everything we have ever known.
- 6 The Spirit of the Building
38 Hawley St.
 THE INVISIBLE SHOWMAN | CHICAGO
 8:30 pm - 12:15 am
 The Invisible Showman is a man of infinite talents, adaptable to any stage. One moment a digital illusionist, the next a king of comedy. A voice for song like none you've heard—he's better than real. The Showman is the ultimate in virtual entertainment and adopts his performance to each audience. LUMA is proud to present, for the first time ever in public, the Invisible Showman and his debut performance: The Spirit of the Building.
